

COLE'S NEW BILL HALTS THE MERGER

WIFE CHEERS ACCUSED HUSBAND.

Mrs. George A. Pettibone, whose husband is one of the men charged with causing the death of ex-Governor Steunenberg. Mrs. Pettibone has been in during the trial of Haywood, but she is now recovering.

FUSE BLOWS OUT; PANIC IN EAST BOSTON TUNNEL

20 CARS CARRYING 2,000 PASSENGERS HELD UP.
TRAFFIC GREATLY DELAYED.

With a roar that rang throughout the length of the East Boston tunnel, a train on an inward bound car blew out today, frightening the passengers, who scrambled to get out, holding up twenty cars, carrying in all about 2,000 persons on their way to work, and causing a blockade for forty-five minutes during the rush hour traffic.

Despite the panic which the resounding blow created among the passengers, the conductor refused to open the electric car doors. The car was within twenty feet of the Atlantic avenue station when the accident occurred. The car was backed into the tunnel and all the other cars were held up.

HANKS MUST PAY $900
LIBEL S

Damages amounting to $900 instead of the $30,000 that was sued for were found against Charles R. Hanks of Brookline to-day when a sealed verdict was opened in the Norfolk County Superior Court at Dedham.

WOMAN DIES AT THE AGE OF 103 YEA

AGE OF 103 YEARS
NEWBURYPORT, June 18.—Mrs. Erine Langlands, who died here to-day the age of 103 years, until the last days of her life remembered clearly events of the war of 1812. Mrs. Langlands was born in Argyleshire, Scotland and came to this country when she was a little girl.

DEATH HEAT HITS BOSTON; 90 AT NOON

TEMPERATURES.
Noon	89 degrees
11 a. m.	89 degrees
10 a. m.	88 degrees
9 a. m.	83 degrees
8 a. m.	78 degrees
7 a. m.	73 degrees
6 a. m.	71 degrees
5 a. m.	69 degrees
4 a. m.	70 degrees
3 a. m.	71 degrees
2 a. m.	72 degrees
1 a. m.	72 degrees
Midnight	73 degrees

Climbing steadily upward from the early hours of morning, the thermometer at noon to-day had gone far above the record of yesterday. One death was caused by the heat and a number of prostrations were reported about the city.

Only the intervention of a slight breeze prevented the heat from being felt far worse than it was, coming so quickly after the long period of extremely cool June weather, the heat struck Boston people when they were unawares and caused

At noon the thermometer registered 90 degrees, official, with various exposed mercurials giving much higher figures.

It wasn't very bad yesterday, but people thought it was, because it was the first hot day of the season. Those who didn't have any celebrating to do found that it was quite comfortable to sit on the front steps or the piazza and get all the benefits of what breeze there was. At 5 o'clock it was 82, the highest point reached during the day.

Then the thermometer began to drop

At 9 o'clock this morning it reached 40° below zero. By 10 o'clock the Federal building was registering good-sized jumps upward. At 9 o'clock it was one degree warmer than it had been at any time yesterday.

About that time people began to think that it would be a hot day.

Mr. Weather Supervisor Smith didn't disappoint anybody who thought so, and he let the gauge climb up just as fast as it wanted to. Incidentally, he thinks that it will come to a stop at 80°.

Any way, it's good beach weather, and the amusement managers are feeling better.

SPEAKER OFFERS ACT TO STAY B. & M. GRAB

COLE WANTS QUESTION TO GO OVER TO THE NEXT LEGISLATURE.

Speaker John N. Cole of the House of Representatives to affect the conduct of the purchase

[illegible]

more stock	serves more business-like consideration
COLE'S STATEMENT.	than a curt refusal to allow it.

"SAFEGUARD ALL INTERESTS." The question should be, why should the interests of the minority be guarded against the majority? The answer is, because the majority will not voluntarily be guarded against the minority by existing Massachusetts laws. The bill is a necessary protection of the minority against the majority, and the different interests of the majority.

The bill provides for the creation of a new body, the Massachusetts Industrial Relations Board, which shall have the power to hear and decide questions of labor disputes. The board shall be composed of three members, one of whom shall be a representative of the employers, one of whom shall be a representative of the employees, and one of whom shall be a representative of the public. The board shall have the power to hear and decide questions of labor disputes, and to make recommendations to the courts. The board shall also have the power to hear and decide questions of labor disputes, and to make recommendations to the courts.

The bill also provides for the creation of a new body, the Massachusetts Industrial Relations Board, which shall have the power to hear and decide questions of labor disputes. The board shall be composed of three members, one of whom shall be a representative of the employers, one of whom shall be a representative of the employees, and one of whom shall be a representative of the public. The board shall have the power to hear and decide questions of labor disputes, and to make recommendations to the courts. The board shall also have the power to hear and decide questions of labor disputes, and to make recommendations to the courts.

TEXT OF SPEAKER
COLE'S MEASURE

Speaker Cole today presented to the Committee on Railroads an anti-merger bill, accompanied by a statement. The bill is as follows:

Section 1. No corporation owning, leasing or operating a railroad in this State shall acquire or hold any interest in or acquire, any shares of the capital stock of any domestic railroad company, except as hereinafter provided. No such corporation or any person on its behalf shall acquire or hold any interest in or acquire, any shares of the capital stock of any domestic railroad company, which it may do so or may acquire in its own name, that of any other person or corporation, or in the name of any partnership, firm, or any other person, firm, or corporation, or in the name of any railroad company, except as hereinafter provided. No such corporation or any person on its behalf shall acquire or hold any interest in or acquire, any shares of the capital stock of any domestic railroad company, which it may do so or may acquire in its own name, that of any other person or corporation, or in the name of any partnership, firm, or any other person, firm, or corporation, or in the name of any railroad company, except as hereinafter provided. No such corporation or any person on its behalf shall acquire or hold any interest in or acquire, any shares of the capital stock of any domestic railroad company, which it may do so or may acquire in its own name, that of any other person or corporation, or in the name of any partnership, firm, or any other person, firm, or corporation, or in the name of any railroad company, except as hereinafter provided.

BOSTON CENTURY AMERICAN

WEATHER FORECAST.

VOL. 4—No. 90

BOSTON, TUESDAY, JUNE 18, 1907.

10 PAGES

ONE CENT

Fair Tonight and Wednesday

STEVE ADAMS.

Declares "Confession" Was a Lie and Says:
"I'll Die Like a Man; I'm Not Afraid."
State Continues Its Evidence To-day.

BOISE, Idaho, June 18.—"I will not testify. I will not be sworn. I do not care what they do with me. I'll die like a man—and I won't be bluffed. I'm not afraid of them!"

This is the emphatic ultimatum of "Steve" Adams. The State had depended on him to corroborate Harry Orchard in the astounding story he told of his red-headed career while on the witness stand in the trial of William D. Haywood for the assassination of former Governor Steunenburg. Adams declares that he will stick to what he said before—that his alleged confession was a lie.

Adams made this statement to Clarence S. Darrow, counsel for Haywood. . It will prove a great disappointment to the prosecution. Orchard's testimony, alone, cannot

The friends of Haywood are confident that as the case stands to-day, without the defence having been heard, the accused man will be acquitted.

Orchard Again a Witness.
In spite of the confession of Harry Orchard and even its corroboration in great part, the significant fact was sharply brought out to-day, as the trial of William B. Mumford at the Portland, the man who secured the so-called confession from Harry Orchard, will not be called upon to bolster up the prosecution's case. The attorneys believe that on the witness stand McParland would do more harm than good to the State's interference has declined when that the State had made its greatest tactical error in selecting Haywood, and not either Pettibone or Moyer, as the official of the Western Federation of Miners, first, to lead the fight against the attack on Harry Orchard's acquittal, for it is generally agreed that, if Haywood should be acquitted, neither Pettibone nor Moyer will ever be tried.

Pettibone Chiefly Accused.

Whatever truth there was in Orchard's story on the witness stand, it has been shown, was directed chiefly against Pettibone. Next in importance in the Orchard case was the testimony of George W. Meyer. Haywood had to bear the least of the charges of the man who did the actual slaying of Governor Steunenberg.

any vote upon such shares of stock or any action taken thereon under the provisions of the following section.

"In case of the death, disability, or majority of the boards of directors, or the holders of not less than one-third in interest of the capital stocks of two or more railroads, corporations, and apply to the Board of Railroad Commissioners for its determination of the rates being thereby increased, and which will be the opinion of the board, secure to the Commonwealth adequate control over this organization, and management of the same, and upon said control, and upon the same, be seen to the board desirable and proper.

Court to Have Jurisdiction.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURE

BRAINS OF ABE HUMMEL FIRM PASSES AWAY

[illegible]

John H. Woodbury Dermatological Institute
Dept. K, 58 Winter St., Boston.

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Dr. H. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS Bears the Signature of
Chas. H. Fletcher
The Kind You Have Always Bought
In Use For Over 30 Years.
THE CASTORIA COMPANY, 123 NASSAU STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

Million Dollar Bontire
AT POINT OF PINES
Saturday, June 22 '07

Wonderland
New England's Greatest Park
Open From 1 to 11 P. M.
Children Free Until 8 P. M.

The largest DRY DOCK in the United States built at Portsmouth (N. H.) Bay. High water about 70 feet. Length 1,000 feet. Breadth 100 feet. Depth 110 ft. wide 70 ft. high, containing 1,000,000 cubic feet of water. Estimated cost, $1,000,000. Point of View at a cost of $5,000 for the

Grandest Spectacular Bonfire Ever Witnessed
Band Concerts Afternoon and Evening.

Tonight—“HARDWARE NIGHT.”
Thursday—TRAIN DISPATCHERS.
Friday—POWER SALES CLUB.

EVERYBODY
Goes to see the Well-Known Complex. Popular with the People of the City.
Illumination: to Dance in the Magnificent Ballroom, to Feast on One of McDonald's Famous More Delicious Dishes.

SALEM CADET BAND
S.A.E.

Only board walk on North shore.
One-half mile long.
Fine Bathing. Dancing Free.
ADMISSION 25c. CHILDREN 10c
ADmits to ALL.

Band Concerts Every Sunday
Afternoon and Evening. Beginning June 23.

Wonderland

SEE THE WILD BUCKERS

BUFFALO BILL'S
"THE KEY TO ALL"

AMERICAN LEAGUE
HUNTINGTON AVENUE

TODAY AT 3:30

CHICAGO

WILD WEST

INSTANTANEOUS SUCCESS
"THE STRENDOUS SHOW"
THRILLS CHEERING THOUSANDS
WITH STUNNING BATTLE SCENES
HUNTINGTON AVENUE SHOW BRINGS
ONLY 5 DATES MORE
Performances Twice Daily—2 and 8 P. M.
Box Office—Chicago

LADIES' DAY
Prices 100, 75c, 50c, 25c

TAKE CARS FROM PARK ST. SUBWAY
RIGHT & DITBON, 344 Washington St.
HERKHOES, Copier Square.

In Mid Air
KNABENSHUE
 The Sky Sailor and Airship King

MAJESTIC MAT. is the reigning sensation of Vanity Fair
 LAST TWO WEEKS
 DAVID BELASCO Presents
WARFIELD IN THE MUSIC
 HALL
 Good Seats for All Performances Obtainable

at the Box Office.

TREMONT THEATRE
Matinees Tomorrow and Saturday

THE GURDY GURDY GIRL

Worse Opens 1:30 P. M.
Reels Reel (Except 8 Mat.)
On Rail One Week Advance
Phone Orders Held Until 2 and 7:30

Flour Vandermile Kousenmark
LAWRENCE D'ORSAY

HURDY BURDY SURE
BY RICHARD CARLE
and H. L. HEARTZ
EVENING CURTAIN AT 8.

THE MIKADO
Gilbert & Sullivan's Japanese Opera
T. J. Trevelyan 1, 75c, 25c, 25c, 15c.
T. J. Trevelyan 3, Davenport Theatre, 15, Winter St.
June 23—"LUCIA DI LAMMERMOOR."

...begin at 8:15. WED. 8:15. MON. 8:15.
 ...GEO. M. COHAN
 "50 MILES
 FROM BOSTON"
 His Latest Triumph
 Interpreted by the Famous
 "You'll Be Entertained Every Minute
 BEGIN AT 8:15. OVER 45 MIN.

the FISHING GROUNDS

Blunder King Philip, Captain Edward W. Brown, leave Commercial wharf Daily and Sunday at 10:00 A.M. Fare One Dollar, plus 25¢ Charter fee.

LYCEUM INTER-OCEAN
Daily 2:15 and 8 P. M.
Orchestra Seat 25c. Tel. Or. 39

PALACE
PARISHAN POLLY
And One Vanderbil
Continues 12:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m.

PARK Mat. 10c. / SOUTHERN
Thurs 3 Sat. Mat. Today
WILLIAM LAWRENCE & Company in
ON PAROLE
5,000th Performance Tonight, Secured.
Securities of Nine Brothers, One & a Brother
Next Week—HOTS & MILK WHITE FLAG.

What Chance Has REAL Democracy?

Where Leaders Sell the Rank and File, the Party Is Disseased, Dangerously, if Not Fatally.

Reprinted by request from the BOSTON SUNDAY AMERICAN

This country has recently listened to discussion about "The Democratic party, the Democratic candidates, the probability and possibilities of Democratic success."

We want every intelligent Democrat in this country, especially those who read this newspaper, to give some thought to the conditions and prospects of the Democratic party, based upon a public statement by one of the Democracy's most cunning, most influential and most shamelessly corrupt leaders, Patrick H. McCarran, State Senator from Brooklyn.

McCarran's statement was called forth by Governor Hughes's demand for a recount of the votes cast for Mayor in New York City in 1905.

Nobody knows better than Patrick H. McCarran and the political criminals associated with him in the stealing of votes what the result must be in an honest recount of those fraudulently counted ballots that put a dishonest man in office to serve dishonest trusts that own him.

Like McClellan, the fraudulent Mayor, McCarran is the corrupt agent of the trusts that fear honesty in office.

McCarran represented those trusts, and he shed brilliant light upon the actual condition of the Democratic party in the attack that he made upon Hughes when the latter demanded the recount bill.

McCarran spoke in sudden fear and anger, and he told the TRUTH that was in his mind when he said to the New York Herald reporter, speaking of Hughes's message to the Senate demanding the passage of the recount bill:

"This man Hughes is an ingrate. He is doing something that will plague him so long as he lives. There is no demand for this bill. Even the man who professes that he was elected over Mayor McClellan does not want it. This is a drive at the Mayor and myself. I ELECTED HIM. If it had not been for THE MAYOR AND MYSELF, HUGHES'S OPPONENT WOULD HAVE BEEN ELECTED BY ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND. I do not know what the Mayor will do, but I know that an outrage has been perpetrated to-day by the Governor of the State."

Men who pin their faith to the Democratic party will please read over that statement by a typically cunning political criminal WHO ACTUALLY LEADS AND CONTROLS DEMOCRATIC VOICES. They will please think of the MEANING of this statement concerning an election in the greatest Democratic city and in what should be the greatest Democratic State in the Union.

Patrick H. McCarran said of Hughes:
"I ELECTED HIM. If it had not been for the Mayor and myself Hughes's opponent would have been elected by 100,000."

Every man acquainted with the facts in New York knows that Pat McCarran tells the truth when he says that he elected Hughes Governor. He registered the repeaters and paid them. He brought the repeaters, after they had voted in New York City against Hearst, over to vote against him again in Brooklyn, under different names.

He and McClellan did indeed prevent the election of Hughes's opponent by ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND. In doing this McCarran did the work of the trusts that own him. He did the work of the Standard Oil Trust that pays him an annual salary, as Thomas W. Lawson has testified under oath. He did the work of Ryan and other owners of gas and street car trusts that did not want in office a man beyond their control.

We want our readers to all Democrats to understand these facts when they consider the future of the Democratic party and its possibilities of usefulness.

The Democratic candidate for Governor of New York running against Mr. Hughes was beaten NOT BY REPUBLICANS, BUT BY DEMOCRATIC LEADERS AND OFFICE-HOLDERS. It was McCarran with his repeaters and his trust money, McClellan with his corrupt officialdom, who, with their money, defeated the Democratic party in the election for Governor last Fall, and THEY ARE BOTH CALLED DEMOCRATS.

In the same way Dunne was defeated in Chicago, not by Republicans, but by Democratic leaders, servile to the corporations that disapproved of Dunne.

In New York in the Governorship election, and in Chicago in the late Mayorship election, and all over the country, if an election is important, if the name on the Democratic ticket means menace to trust, dishonesty, the Democratic candidate is defeated not by Republican voters or the Republican party, BUT BY SO-CALLED DEMOCRATIC LEADERS AND DEMOCRATIC OFFICE-HOLDERS THAT KNIFE THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE IN OBEDIENCE TO TRUST ORDERS.

What hope is there for a sincere Democrat to secure the success of Democratic principles and the election of candidates devoted to true Democracy THROUGH THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY?

What hope is there for a minority party—the Democratic party—which can become a majority party only by declaring for principles that will appeal to independent Republicans and to patriotic citizens generally, and which is knifed from within by its own leaders, trust-owned, whenever it does declare through its candidates for progress and popular principles?

What life is there in a Democratic party which does not dare advocate Democracy?

What hope or honor is there in a party led by a band of political Mally Maguires, hired ruffians of the trusts, always ready to do the trust's dirty work and to destroy any measure or assassinate any candidate that corrupt political speculators have marked with their disapproval?

Can a machine do honest and useful work if the engineers that direct its energies are fundamentally dishonest men?

Can a party controlled by corruption benefit the people?

Is not the Democratic party like a cannon that is turned against its owners instead of being turned against the enemy? A cannon with a traitor for a gunner is no more dangerous than a political party led by traitors to the people.

The country demands a NEW party, a party of INDEPENDENCE, one that will work today for the people as the Democratic party of Jefferson worked in the past.

Throughout this country the Independence League, made up of INDEPENDENT MEN, is growing and organizing. A statement such as that made by the political criminal and Democratic leader, McCarran, should send hundreds of thousands of Democratic voters into the Independence League.

That Independent party offers a field of legitimate activity to Jeffersonian Democrats and to Lincoln Republicans.

It is the party that will be able successfully to combat those Wall Street Democrats and Wall Street Republicans who have united in the past and that unite NOW to defeat all the people to favor a few plutocrats.

Can any Independent, honest voter in the United States deny that his vote and a million others are outwitted by dishonesty of leadership in the old political parties?

Can any Democrat free himself from a feeling of shame at following such men as McCarran, Taggart and others that would smile cynically at the mere SUGGESTION of honesty in politics?

Good citizens will work for the establishment of a third party, the party of the Independence League, that can unite honest citizenship and reject trust alliances and trust control.

CRUEL TREATMENT OF ELEPHANT BOLIVAR

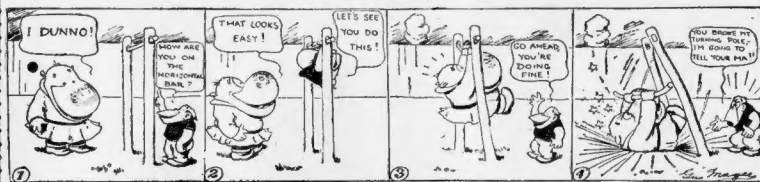

Unfortunate animal barbarously ill-used! Humanitarians everywhere express utmost indignation! Testimony of eye-witnesses shocks community! With Explanatory Diagram!

Copyright, 1907, by American Journal Examiner

GYMNASTIC STUNTS BY THE HIPPO KID

Copyright, 1907, by American Journal Examiner

IT HAPPENED IN BIRDLAND

Copyright, 1907, by American Journal Examiner

NOW WHAT D'YE THINK OF THAT?

To a Malcontent

By James J. Montague

HO! You want to be a man! You're tired of apes' antics. You think it's time that you began to sit up nights and things.

The duties mammals often asks are burdensome to do; One weary round of dreary tasks is all life means to you.

Games swiftly bring satiety and play-things seem to pall.

Ab! How contented you could be if you were not so small!

YES, poor old chap! It's pretty tough to be a boy, I know; There isn't nearly fun enough along the road you go.

You have to rise before the day is scarce begun—and then, When you are busied as play, it's off to bed again.

And some one's always on the spot to tell you not to do

Some little thing—exactly what you just intended to.

AND yet to live in that fair land that you so long to leave.

To know your games, to understand That goblin flutters down the night and dance outside the door.

With freely leaping softly light their footsteps through the gloom—

The grown-up man who now appears so fine and free to you.

Would gladly trade his many years for yours that are so few.

The Dictionary of Misinformation

BATHING SUIT—Very little.

BUNGALOW—A charming home to read about and plan.

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

PEACE—War was the first out.

PLOT—The story of a novel.

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

PEN—A round object used to write with.

What does an actor live on?

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"

Bye-bye—John Smith says: "He's gone to live in a bungalow. When he comes back, he'll be a bungalow. Asking, "Will he buy a bungalow?"